
YANKTON, SD

The city of Yankton, South Dakota is also referred to as the "River City" due to its close proximity to the Missouri River. Known as "the village at the end of the line," Yankton was originally the winter camping ground for a band of Sioux Indians. This city is rich with historical charm and with the Louis and Clark Lake in close proximity recreation is abundant.

Greetings, families of this year's 8th through 12th graders! I am excited to announce that we will be traveling as a youth group to Yankton, South Dakota for our annual summer mission trip! This year, we will be going through YouthWorks, an organization that actively builds partnerships in communities in need around the world.

We will fundraise throughout the spring to cover the costs of transportation and some extra costs, and I'm thrilled to say that this trip will cost only $100 per student.

Please fill out this registration form and return it to either the Elk River Lutheran office, or directly to me (Ian McConnell).

Please call or email if you have any questions!
